

How Children Can Take A Stand

Host a Lemonade Stand

Set up a lemonade stand on a busy street corner on a hot day!

What you will need:

Lemonade, ice, disposable cups, straws, a stand and decorations

Chores for Charity

Ask your neighbors if you can take out their trash, vacuum their rugs, wash their dishes etc.

What you will need:

Parents permission and supervision, plus miscellaneous cleaning supplies

Recycle

Save the environment and raise money by collecting cans, bottles and other recyclables.

What you will need:

A waste container to hold your recyclables, plus a parent to take you to the recycling center

Other ideas include: Pet Services & Lawn Work

How Adolescents Can Take A Stand

Host a Change Drive

Create fun jars and ask local businesses if you can leave the jars for customers to donate their change.

What you will need:

Willing businesses, craft supplies, and jars

Outrageous Bets for Charity

Will you shave your head or jump into a freezing cold pool if you can get 10 people to donate to Pathways?

What you will need:

Parent's permission and a brave soul

Babysitting

Ask your family, friends, or neighbors if you can care for their younger children while they go out for dinner.

What you will need:

Parent permission and experience with young children

Other ideas include: Pet Services, Babysitting, Chores & Lawn Work

How Adults Can Take A Stand

Host a Bingo or Bunko Night

Turn your living room into a gaming zone, invite all your friends and family members over for some fun competition! Charge admission.

What you will need:

Bingo or Bunko cards and markers, prizes and refreshments

Host an Adult Lemonade Party

Invite your friends and family members over for a Fundraising Party. You can provide cocktails and snacks and encourage your attendees to donate to Pathways' programs!

What you will need:

A place to host the party, hospitality items

Host a Yard Sale

As you wrap up your spring cleaning, hold on to items you wish to get rid of and host a yard sale.

What you will need:

Items you no longer need and a front yard

Other ideas include: Scavenger Hunt, Paint Night, Ice Cream Social

How Service Groups Can Take A Stand

Host a Community Movie Night

On a warm summer evening break out that projector and show a family friendly movie. You can charge for admission and sell concessions to raise funds!

What you will need:

A movie projector, family friendly movie, and concessions such as popcorn and soda to sell

Host a Pancake Breakfast, Potato Bar, or Spaghetti Dinner

Invite everyone you know to join your group for a Pancake Breakfast, Potato Bar or Spaghetti Dinner. Charge an admission fee to raise funds!

What you will need:

A venue with cooking amenities, ingredients specific to your particular fundraiser, paper dining ware and cutlery

Have a Salsa Making Contest

Invite people to participate in spicy competition! Charge and entry fee and split the proceeds between the winner and Pathways of Hope.

What your will need:

Willing participants, judges, a venue

Other ideas include: Scavenger Hunts, Restaurant Drives & Rummage Sales